

CHAPTER ONE

THE PHONE CALL

Fort Mill, South Carolina, USA
The year 2012, December 7, 6:18 P.M.

DANIEL: (ring) Hello.

THOMAS (on the phone): Is this the Daniel Veritas, who claims to have discovered the secret of the Creation?

DANIEL: Yes, it is me. Who's this?

THOMAS: My name is Thomas Funderburk. The reason for my call is that I read your recent article "Revelation of Genesis" that refers to the Secret of the Creation. Do you have a few minutes?

DANIEL: Not really, but I'll listen for a minute or two.

THOMAS: Great! I am wondering if you could shed light on a strange thing in a cemetery that has truly bewildered me.

DANIEL: I don't deal with the dead, only the living. Anyway, what did you see in the cemetery?

THOMAS: It's a gravestone that seems to be alive. I found a gravestone with no name on it and a strange epitaph. It's surrounded by ground fog with mysterious cold air flow flowing towards it. Sometimes I think I hear many voices, sometimes a slow ticking sound. Twice it was to be removed. Both times workers died mysteriously.

DANIEL: Do you expect me to believe this?
