

THOMAS: Daniel, now you can explain to me how knowledge increased during the end times, which you say is now.

DANIEL: Like the prophet Daniel, I had a dream about evenings and mornings.

THOMAS: When?

DANIEL: It was several years ago in the middle of the night.

THOMAS: I had a dream last week. I saw the face of a rabbit in the clouds.

DANIEL: Did the rabbit say anything?

THOMAS: No. It was a rabbit and rabbits don't talk.

DANIEL: So what's the point?

THOMAS: Anybody can have a dream about anything.

DANIEL: Mine was different.

THOMAS: Is this some kind of mysterious experience?

DANIEL: Yes.

THOMAS: Do you want to tell me about it?
